FREE, FREE, FREE,
—AT THE—Fair Store!

A Large Crayon Portrait of Your-self
FREE OF CHARGE.

In order to advertise our business more extensively and in a desirable manner, we have decided to present our customers a splendid enlarged portrait of yourself or friend. The conditions on which you receive this beautiful and appropriate gift are exceedingly light and worthy your consideration.

We Will State Them in Few Words:

Buy $15.00 worth of goods by paying us the very lowest cash prices and the deed is done. You can then furnish us with a cabinet photo, panel, tintype or other picture of yourself or friend and we will have it enlarged at once, and present it to you absolutely free of charge.

The size of the picture will be 14x17 inches and the frame 25x28 inches, the latter being of late design in antique steel bronze or gilt. These pictures are from the studio of one of the best artists in Chicago, and were never sold for less than $10.00 or $15.00 without frames.

Remember, we do not ask you to buy large bills at any one time, but will furnish you with a card, on the margin of which are placed figures of convenient amounts, from 25 cents to $1.00—making a total of $15. When you make a purchase we punch out a set of these figures, and when all are punched out we will present you with the picture.

Call at our store and see a sample of the work, and please do not forget that we give the picture of YOURSELF, WIFE, CHILD, FRIEND, FATHER, MOTHER, SWEETHEART, or last, but not least, MOTHER-IN-LAW, free of charge. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

What could be nicer for home adornment than one of these elegant CRAYONS?

We have also made arrangements with a large frame manufactory to mount and frame these portraits for our patrons in the best style at one-fourth the usual cost of such frames. You can have either gilt or bronze frame with first-class French plate glass, all ready to hang on the wall.

YOU ARE, HOWEVER, NOT OBLIGED to purchase a frame at all, or you can purchase it at some other store. This does not matter to us; we give you the picture and sell you the frame at cost if you wish it.

Yours Generously,
The Fair Store,
RENO, NEVADA.

The Behring Sea Matter.
By Associated Press.
New York, July 16.—A Washington special says: An important statement has been made on excellent authority in explanation of the delay attending the transmission of the Behring Sea correspondence to Congress, in accordance with the resolution recently adopted by the House of Representatives. It is now understood that Blaine has caused the delay in order that an important dispatch which he has prepared in reply to Lord Salisbury's latest representations should appear among the documents when they are made public. This dispatch was written by Mr. Blaine several days ago and forwarded to Minister Lincoln for delivery to the English Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. It is understood that a copy of it is already in the hands of the State officials, but courtesy between the two nations forbids the publication of any part of it in advance of its receipt by Lord Salisbury.

Reservated Indians Starving.
By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Secretary of the Interior has transmitted to Congress a letter from William McKusick, Indian Agent at the Sisseton Agency, South Dakota, stating that the Sisseton and Wahpeton Indians of the Lake Traverse Reservation are in a most destitute condition, the drought of last year having almost totally destroyed their crops, and asking that $5,000 be appropriated for the purchase of provisions to keep the Indians from starving.

Created a Sensation.
By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, July 16.—A sensation was created in the Peace Congress yesterday by Sir H. de Burgh Lawson, who accepted the chair. In his address he started everybody by declaring that he was opposed to prayer at the opening of the sittings of the congress, and he proceeded to give his reasons, causing no little discomfort among the clergymen and religious people present. "Religion," he said, "teaches us to love our enemies. Now the first thing a parent does is to place the eldest boy in the army, where he is taught to run his enemies through." The speaker went through a series of similar arguments and drew the conclusion therefrom that either religion or its exponents were a failure.

Last Winter's Stock Losses.
M. E. Ward received a letter this morning from E. W. Crutcher, the most of whose stock ranged in the northern part of Humboldt county, saying that the losses showed that he had lost fully 50 per cent of his horses and 90 per cent of his cattle. Should the above losses prove an average in that section, it will amount to just about a clean up of the horned cattle, for the remainder will hardly pay to look after.

A Death of Arrests.
This spell of hot weather has apparently paralyzed the sinuous arms of Justice. Either the delinquents are resting beneath the shadows of sheltering sagebrush or the vagrants and tramps who have come into Reno have succumbed to the heat, a number, in fact, having located their asphyxiated remains alongside the Truckee river. Meanwhile Justice Young is cooling his pedal extremities and keeping out a weather eye on the situation.

Italian Padrone System Discussed.

A HEAVY WIND STORM.

Farmer's Alliance and Labor Convention.

Congressional Matters.
By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 17.—The House went into Committee of the Whole on the land grant forfeiture bill.

The House Committee on Immigration to-day heard the statement by Dr. Verdi of this city, himself a native of Italy, upon the subject of the Padrone system. His statement was mainly in refutation of those made by the preceding witness respecting the existing system of Italy's slave labor in this country. He says he has lived 40 years in the United States and never yet has found an Italian laborer who worked under a Padrone. The Italians were not fools and were not to be gulled so easily into surrendering themselves voluntarily into slavery. The Italian Government appointed a commission to examine the emigration system, and as a result a law was passed, which, while recognizing personal rights, guarded against unrestricted emigration, assisted by unworthy persons for personal gain. A prohibition was placed upon the emigration of any class of persons whose immigration is forbidden by the laws of the country to which they sought to go. Italy needed all her citizens and was doing all she could to keep them.

Representative Oates, who had been a member of the Ford Committee of the last Congress, said he had little doubt but what the Italian restriction law cited by Dr. Verdi, which has not been in operation before this year, would be of great benefit in preventing the immigration of the undesirable element.

A short debate ensued. The heat of the chamber was so great many of the members sought the breezes in the lobby, and little attention was given to the discussion.

SENATE.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill, the pending question being on an amendment to add an appropriation of $300,000 for topographical surveys, with a provision that half of that sum be expended west of the 101st meridian, and that the act of October, 1888, reserving irrigable lands, be repealed. Call argued against the amendment.

He argued in favor of a continuance of the irrigation survey, and said that all the irrigation schemes on a large scale that have been successful have been established by Governments. A repeal of the irrigation law would, Call said, open that vast area of arid lands of 200,000 square miles to the operation of foreign syndicates, who will seize much of it under the desert land and timber land laws, and the people would be deprived of their use and occupation.

Moody argued in favor of the amendment, and spoke of its transcendent importance to the people of South Dakota. He ridiculed the pretensions of Major Powell, and spoke of him as a "Tycoon of many tails," who knew as much about the arid lands of the West as he did about the mountains of the moon, and not one whit more. The region in which he (Moody) lived, and for hundreds of miles west of it, which Major Powell designated as arid land, was as fine an agricultural country as the sun ever shone upon. There was not an acre of desert land in it; it was as well watered as any part of New England or as the State of New York. He denied, however, that these lands were withdrawn from settlement under the construction given the irrigation act. If they had been, the people of South Dakota would make themselves heard in Congress.

Another Minnesota Storm.
By Associated Press.
ST. PAUL, July 17.—A heavy storm visited different parts of the State last evening.

At Redwing and Lake City there was a heavy, beating rain, which is thought to have done great damage to crops.

Marine, a little town near Stillwater, as well as Stillwater itself, were reported wiped out, but the latest advices contradict that report.

The worst effect of the tornado was in North St. Paul, a suburb of this city, where it played havoc with property for a few minutes, but fortunately there was no loss of life. The storm struck there at 8:20 o'clock, and for a few moments the southern limits of the suburb were wrapped in dense clouds of mist, driving before a furious gale, with cyclonic conditions. Large crowds of people had been on the lookout, and there was the wildest consternation. The storm veered off to the east and passed on. A two story brick building was crushed together like an egg shell. The loss will probably reach $10,000.

ST. PAUL, July 17.—At the Farmers' Alliance and United Labor Convention this morning the first business was the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted. It demands that the "war tariff" be radically revised, especially denouncing the McKinley bill as the "crowning infamy of protection;" demands the Government control of railroads; favors an increase in the volume of money; and demands the free coinage of silver.

The first ballot for a candidate for Governor resulted: Ignatius Donnelly, 172; C. J. Hall, 170; Nelson, 56; Daniel Buck, 17; General J. H. Baker, 5; Pinkham and Gamble, 3 each; Owen Rabilly, Herrington and Armstrong, 1 each.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

DURING the discussion of the tariff bill, Senator Dolph said: In the present condition of England we have an object lesson we would do well to study. On one side four millions of capitalists, tilted aristocracy, with wide country seats devoted to parks and game preserves; with magnificent baronial castles filled with costly works of art; stables filled with horses which have never been used in any useful or profitable employment, and are better cared for every day than the thirty millions of human beings who are ground into the earth to supply this magnificence; bankers who go on from day to day adding bond to bond and stock to stock, who loan their millions to kings and control kingdoms by their wealth; four millions who live in luxury such as no similar number of men in any other country in ancient or modern times ever lived, squandering often in vice the gains wrung from labor under the unequal and unnatural industrial system of Great Britain. But let us turn to the other side of the picture. Thirty millions of people, millions of whom were once prosperous farmers, small traders, employers of labor, wall-to-do merchants, and day laborers, under the system which placed their labor in competition with the labor of the world, have been growing poorer and poorer, and their condition has gone from bad to worse. The harvest of the system is thirty millions out of thirty-four millions of people who dwell in poverty and starvation and misery. There are among them one million of paupers, millions who are half clothed, millions out of employment while fourteen millions find employment for but a portion of the time only, and work for starvation wages at that.

In a recent interview at Youngstown, Ohio, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch, C. H. Andrews, the pioneer of the coal and iron business in the Mahoning Valley, was asked as to the future of the trade and the development of the ore business, and said: "The coal and ore trade is growing very rapidly. The shipments of ore have increased until last year it jumped to 7,000,000 tons, and it will be but a few years until from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 tons will be landed at lake ports. The demand is increasing, by reason of the erection of furnaces, and more will be erected through the Mahoning and Shenango Valleys. The coal trade is increasing and large shipments are being made to the Northwest and Canada. The sooner we build a steel plant here the better. We can make steel as cheaply as anywhere and the rolling mills would take the entire product. The duty placed on tin by the McKinley bill should stand, as it would greatly benefit the country, causing the erection of rolling mill and employing thousands of men."

In their opposition to the Federal Election bill the Democrats virtually admit that they have no hope of winning the next election, or any other for a long time to come. The law is as fair for one party as the other, admitting for the sake of argument that it might be administered on partisan principles.

The "dama silver" Democrats of the Henry Watterson stripe—and their action on the white metal in their last National Convention showed a majority to be of that ilk—seem greatly annoyed at the steady advance of silver since the passage of what they call the "Sherman bill."

SPEAKER REED is an old-stager and thoroughly familiar with the tactics of the Democrats. They realized this with stunning force recently when he pulled the ready-engrossed Federal election bill on them.

THE insincerity of Democratic statesmen and editors on the silver question is shown by their continued hostility to the compromise bill which recently became a law.

THE Carson Tribune, which, since its establishment, has been one of the best local papers in the State, has entered upon the 18th year of its life.

GUARDS IN DRESS SUITS.

How the Occupant of the White House is Protected from Cranks.
 The people of this country have looked with much horror and some amusement at the spectacle of the trembling Garfield before us at any moment by the hands of the Nihilists of Russia. The chosen executive of us Americans knows no such fear, writes the Washington correspondent of the Kansas City Star. But with the lesson of the martyred Garfield before us the question has been asked: Why should not any person who happened to be so disposed attempt to assassinate the President at one of his receptions?

I put this question to one of the White House ushers the other day and he replied: "Simply for the reason that it would be very difficult for any individual so inclined to reach the presence of Mr. Harrison. You don't see why, but that is because you never looked about you closely when you have attended a reception at the Executive Mansion. How many pairs of eyes do you suppose scan you closely while you are passing from the front door to the cloak room? Six in all, for at every entertainment of any magnitude whatever six men are on duty for no other purpose than to guard and protect the Chief Executive from harm. Every one of these men has had years of experience in detective work. They can tell at a glance the character of each guest who enters. You never saw these men, you say? You don't suppose, do you, that they are dressed in uniform with brass buttons and a big silver badge on the lapel of their coat? On the contrary, they are dressed just as you would dress, in a spike-tail and a white tie. And they don't look out of place in them, either. That would never do. They must feel at home and look at home in full dress, like a gentleman. That is one of the first requisites for a man who desires to do detective work, among the people who form the 'court circle' at Washington."

"But how can you tell, when a man enters the front door, whether his mission be one of peace or not?" "That is not difficult to the men who make a business of looking after the queer characters of the world. Two classes of people are chiefly to be looked out for—cranks and crooks. The crooks are readily discernible to the educated eye; their manner invariably betraying them. As for the cranks we can tell them with equal readiness. Our task of making them out is made easier, to begin with, when we remember that three-fourths of them are mild lunatics on the question of religion. Every now and then a visitor not entirely sane slips by us; that is unavoidable, as we are by no means infallible. But it is an exceptional occurrence. Do we make mistakes? Sometimes, but we never act rashly. When a man enters about whom there is the slightest doubt one of us is detailed to follow him, and you can rest assured that he is never out of our sight until he has put on his top coat and left the mansion. When he enters the line to pass the President we always take our place immediately behind him, and it would be impossible for him to make one threatening gesture before we would be upon him and disarm him."

"And can you tell the dangerous crank every time?" "The bad crank can never be mistaken. His eye will always betray him. He is always of a nervous temperament, and you may well imagine that a man coming here, or a woman for that matter, to do the President harm, would be laboring under a good deal of excitement, and that would betray them to us at a glance. For this violent class of customers brawn is needed more than brains and most of us are fellows of great muscular development. I say, Jim, come here."

He called one of his comrades over and bade him double up his arm. It was hard and firm and as large as an ordinary man's leg.
 "Jim, you know, stands at the head of the reception line," continued my informant. "We have had two martyred Presidents, neither of whom were assassinated in the Executive Mansion. Lincoln was struck down at the theater and Garfield at the railway station. Believe me, the President is in no danger at his own dwelling. Our last experience was only yesterday. A man came in and asked to see the President. Under his arm he carried a small, innocent-looking box. We haven't much use for men with boxes or small sachels, and we always make it our business to find out what is in them before letting them get beyond the front door. Well, I asked this man what he wanted to see the President for, and he replied quite rationally that he only desired to pay his respects. I talked with him for some ten minutes on various subjects, and upon all he was quite rational. Finally I asked him in an off-hand way what he had in the box. 'Oh,' he responded, 'I have a new kind of religion in here.' That settled him; I showed him the door."

Stationery for Lovers.
 A fad in writing-paper is what is called lover's stationery. It is fine note-paper delicately tinted, the most fashionable shade being light pink. The water-mark, to be detected by holding the sheet up to the light, is a blending of two hearts, pierced by an arrow. In the lower corner of each fourth page (or reverse of each second half-sheet) appears what is first sight looks like a blemish. But this is the charming feature of the novelty; it is the kissing spot, for here the correspondent presses his or her lips, and thus a salute is waited to the absent lover. The kissing spot is about the size of a 25-cent piece, and is covered with a thin aromatic gum that imparts to the lips a pleasing odor and taste. A more ingenious bit of maudlin sentimentality could hardly be devised, yet we must all confess that it is of just such innocent and inane follies that the joy of human life largely consists.

MME. CARNOT, wife of the French President, visits hospitals, assists at bazars, entertains all classes and is kind to every body. She buys the lazes, of which she is so fond, in France, and will have no dealings with foreigners.
 Mr. KERNAN never lectures in Washington, although it has been for many years his home. He lectured in that city some 20 years ago and did not draw an audience big enough to pay the rent of the hall in which he spoke.

 A. W. DOWS & CO.: Hood's takes the lead of all other Sarsaparillas.
 C. F. BLANCHARD: We sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of any medicine.
 HARRISON & SEAY: With us the sale of Hood's is 10 to 1 of any other kind.
 F. & E. BAILEY & CO.: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines.
 CARLTON & HONEY: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines we have. Its sale increases every year.
 P. F. MOODY: We sell twice as much of Hood's Sarsaparilla as of anything similar.
 C. A. SWAN: Hood's is the most popular Sarsaparilla of the day.
 THIRTY OTHER druggists speak similarly. This popularity at home, where Hood's Sarsaparilla and its proprietors have been known for many years, could not continue if the medicine did not possess merit. And these facts should certainly convince people in other sections of the country that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good, reliable medicine.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and in its effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Ege is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

An Old Soldier's story. In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bending, Halsey, Ore. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Thousands would give thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee the Electric Butters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in will bring you good digestion, and out Dyspepsia, and install instead Eucpepy. We recommend Electric Butters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, sold at 50c. and 10c. per bottle by W. Finnerger, druggist.

A Michigan Central Railroad Employee Wins His Case After Seven Years Contest.

While employed as agent of the Michigan Central Railroad Company, at Augusta, Mich., my kidneys became diseased, and from an impovished and impure state of the blood, my general health was entirely undermined. I consulted the leading physicians of this city and Ann Arbor, and all pronounced my case Bright's disease. In October last I began taking Hubbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and in a few days I was able to get about. It afforded me pleasure to render suffering humanity any good that I can, and I wish to state that I think it is the best blood, kidney and liver medicine in the world.

A Scrap of Paper saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle; it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For further particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, druggist, 10 Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at W. Finnerger's drug store.

Impressions Avoided.

Several months ago Mr. Henry Plummer of Clements, Cal., who is subject to cramps, was taken with a severe attack. He had been accustomed to get relief by dosing with morphine, but the disagreeable effect that followed would make him miserable for hours after the cramp had been relieved. I persuaded him to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was much pleased with its effect as it was almost instantaneous, and no disagreeable after effects accompanied its use. Chas. Harnett, Farmer, Farmers Trade Union, Clements, Cal. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Hitching Piles are known by moisture, like perspiration causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the seat of the disease, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy is sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

THE NORTH DISSATISFIED.

Plumas County People Want The Old Railroad Schedule.

A strong protest is being made by the citizens of Plumas county, Cal., against the present running time of the N.-C.-O. railroad, on the grounds of the delays caused in the mail service between Reno and the northern country. The delay on the mail going south to San Francisco is twenty-four hours, and twenty-three hours going northward. Besides this inconvenience to make connections with the railroad, the most of the stage run has to be made in the night.

A petition, numerously signed by the citizens most interested will be presented to the Postmaster-General, praying that the mail be carried by stage between Reno and the North.

It is rumored that a large portion of the freight traffic of the N.-C.-O. will, owing to the present time schedule, be diverted from this road to Truckee, and that a new mail service to Johnsville and Quincy will be established from Truckee.

THE TRAMP NUISANCE.

They Are Beginning To Arrive By The Score.

The 2 o'clock east-bound freight train this morning had hardly rolled into Reno when twenty tramps, in a cohort and strong-smelling, crawled out and started down in a patrol towards the vicinity of the stock-yards. The fireman of the west-bound engine saw the gang, and stated that they were about as compact a body of villainous aggregation as people could hardly come to meet after dark. Immediately upon their arrival they proceeded up the track in a compact body, and shortly afterwards the reports of pistol shots were heard in their immediate neighborhood. Officer Nash proceeded to investigate, but both the tramps and the case of the shots were enveloped in the darkness.

In all probability the next few days will develop some interesting tramp items in the Police Court.

BOARD OF PARDONS.

Their Work Since The Last Report.

Last evening's Carson Tribune says: Hugh Kernochan, sent from White Pine for manslaughter, was pardoned yesterday afternoon. He was tried in the Elko county Court and sentenced by Judge Bigelow in 1888.

At to-day's session John Scully, who was sent from White Pine county in June, 1889, for selling whisky to Indians, and sentenced to two years, was pardoned.

The application of T. F. Keith was denied. The application of William Thomas was denied.

Jose Estrada, sent from Esmeralda county in April, 1876, for robbery, and sentenced to 25 years' imprisonment, was pardoned.

An Important Case.

Judge Rising has invited Judge Bigelow to sit with him in Carson next Monday, when the case of the Comstock milling companies against the farmers along the Carson river will come up for hearing. Recently Judge Fitzgerald declared the State water law unconstitutional, and the circumstances in the Ormsby county case are identical with those of the case decided by Judge Fitzgerald. Great interest is taken in these cases by the parties concerned, and the decision of Judges Rising and Bigelow will be eagerly looked for.

Father Kelly Surprised.

Rev. Father Kelly, pastor of the Roman Catholic Church in this city, is away on his annual retreat, and Father Gartland is officiating during his absence. Father Kelly is expected to return next Wednesday, when a choice surprise will await him. His numerous parishioners' desires of showing him a token of their esteem, have completely renovated his rectory. When he returns he will find his residence refurbished from top to bottom, besides numerous presents as tokens of the esteem in which he is held by his parishioners.

A Growing Industry.

Four times as many people are employed in the work of canning fruit in Southern California as last year, and in nearly every town where there is a cannery there is a cry for more help. Notwithstanding the fact that over four hundred men, women and boys are at work day and night in the Pomona Cannery, there must be more help or tons of purchased apricots and peaches will spoil before they can be used.

Lawn Tennis Courts.

Lawn Tennis Court is the leading rage among the young folks of Reno. Two courts have been organized and first-class grounds laid out on the lawn grounds of C. W. Botton and Mrs. Finlayson. The clubs number about 30 members, and every evening about 6 o'clock, in the twilight coolness, interesting contests are held at both tennis courts. The game promises to be a lasting one, at least during the summer.

A Small Incident.

On his voyage to Auburn a few days ago, G. P. Small was accidentally sidetracked at Truckee. Mr. Hymers received a message from Small requesting the authorities to forward at once his wife and family to Truckee, as he could not do without them, and stating that he had gotten into a profitable, though small, business, so that he was able to support them.

Past Mail Train.

The fast mail now runs from Chicago to New Orleans in twenty-nine and three-fourths hours. This is a gain of six hours over the fastest recorded time between the two cities.

Mrs. W. J. Luke left this morning on a recreating trip to the mountains.

Miss Kate Bardenwerper, a Carson school teacher, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Thoma.

MRS. FRANK LESLIE

Being Annoyed by an English Adventurer.

The Salt Lake Tribune says: We are not particularly sorry that Mrs. Frank Leslie is being troubled by an adventurer beyond the sea; because Mrs. Leslie happens to be about as cold-blooded and cold-hearted a woman as ever walked this old earth. She is abundantly able to take care of herself, and this Marquis does not know what he escapes through the fact that Madam Leslie does not care anything about him. She is as cold and calculating as a shovel-nosed shark. She is altogether mercenary, and was born, in fact, with a grudge against mankind in her heart. She can look out for herself. England has better look out for the Marquis. Sixty days in a chain-gang might induce him to contemplate with philosophy the awful possibility of earning his own living.

Mail-Catchers To Be Erected.

The Portland Oregonian says: All of the section foremen on the main line of the Southern Pacific are in receipt of orders to erect mail catchers at the stations in their sections. This is a move preparatory to the quickening of the running time of the overland mail trains, which will hereafter be provided with mail grabbing hooks, the same as the fast trains East and overland. After June 30th the overland will not stop at the smaller stations, but will catch the mail by means of the catching apparatus.

Fast Time On a Long Run.

A Winslow, A. T., correspondent gives the following details of a fast run made on the line of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad last March: Engineer Thomas Hamill, with engine No. 32 and one passenger coach made the run from Albuquerque, N. M., to Holbrook, A. T., a distance of 253 miles, in 290 minutes, including five stops. The engine was a Manchester, with driving wheels five feet and four inches in diameter, and a stroke of 17x24 inches.

Wholesale Slaughter.

The owner of a vine ranch near Porterville, Tulare county, Cal., was troubled so much with ravages of squirrels that he tried an experiment last Saturday of flooding them out. He dug trenches from a big ditch all over the grounds, and then invited the town boys to bring on their dogs. At the close of the first day the boys and dogs killed 2,000 rodents.

Re-Opening a Thoroughfare.

In order to guard against results utterly subversive to health, it is absolutely essential that the grand thoroughfare or avenue of the system, the bowels, should be re-opened as speedily as possible when they become obstructed. If they are not, trouble is misdirected into the blood; the liver becomes torpid; vice billions matter gets into the stomach, and produces indigestion; headache ensues, and other symptoms are produced, which a slow elongation of the excretory canal only tends to aggravate. The perfect properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitter constitute a most useful agent in overcoming constipation of the bowels and promoting a regular habit of bowels. It is infinitely superior to the drastic cathartics and does not, like them, act violently, but produces a natural, painless effect, which does not impair the tone of the excretory organs, which it invigorates instead of weakening. The stomach and liver, and indeed the whole system, is strengthened and regulated by it.

If you suffer prickling pains on moving, or eyes or nose or throat feel tight, and your night sleep is not good, you should promptly use Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Eye Salve. 25 cents a box.

A CHICAGO BOOTBLACK.

Who Wanted To "See De Ole Man."

The Chicago Journal tells the following: A bootblack walked into the office of Mr. Armour. He had none of his outfit with him, but the bootblack was stamped in his face, and all over him. We went to the gate where a guard stands between his post and the greatest packer in the world.

"Were de ole man?" asked the urchin.

The guard told the boy to get out. "You tell de ole man dat I want to see him. I want to see him alone. I don't want to bodder you ner de ole man. But I want to see de ole man, an' I want to see him right off."

Mr. Armour, at his desk, overheard the ragged boy's request.

Let that boy come in here," he called to the young man at the gate.

The urchin approached Mr. Armour in a business-like way. No preliminary compliments.

"Say," said the urchin, "I took a nap out dere in de alley, and while I was asleep some o' dem kids from de Board of Trade came along and swiped my kit, an' I'm short. I want ter borrow a dollar to buy me a kit, an' I'll pay you back on de 'stallment plan. See?"

Mr. Armour handed the boy two silver dollars and told him to go. But the boy handed back one of the dollars and tried to shove the other one at Mr. Armour.

"I don't want but one. I'm goin' to pay it back, and dere's no use o' a man goin' in deeper'n his head. I allus keep my head above de water."

A Cruel Murder.

First Engineer Dyvere of the steamship Jennie, while the vessel was at Cook's Inlet, Alaska, quarreled with the second engineer, whose name is unknown. Dyvere knocked his opponent senseless, and then picked him up and threw him on the moving machinery, which mangled him so that death resulted. The dead man is said to have a widowed mother and two sisters in San Francisco, whom he supported.

Two Hurt Bathers Drowned.

At Newport Beach, Orange county, Cal., Tuesday, Miss Lottie Spurgeon, daughter of W. H. Spurgeon, founder of the city of Santa Ana, and Lieutenant C. V. Donaldson of Company G, Twenty-fourth Infantry of Fort Grant, A. T., were drowned. Miss Spurgeon was carried from the shore by an outboard current and Donaldson went to her rescue.

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

A City Lady Who Required Proof Before Believing.

There recently appeared in the San Francisco Call, Chronicle, and Examiner, a proposition hitherto unheard of. It was an advertisement in which the Edwin W. Joy Company, in proof of the curative properties of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, offered to submit to the terrible test of "no cure no pay." Many accepted, and their experiences are so convincing as to be almost beyond belief. Here is another, written under date January 6, 1890:

DEAR SIR: I accepted your offer to test the merits of your vegetable remedy in a headache, and called for a bottle and got it. I had been troubled for a long time, and had tried nearly everything, with little or no effect; but Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla acted almost like magic, and the first bottle relieved me from one of the worst cases of sick headache ever had.

Yours truly, M. B. PRICE, 16 Prospect Place, San Francisco.

We will from time to time publish others of these letters. It is doubtful if any remedy was ever before submitted to such a severe ordeal.
